

Introducing your SW PTPT Trainee Representatives

“You said...we did”

Jo Adkins

Employing organisation: University Hospitals Dorset

Pharmacy sector: Hospital

Education provider: University of East Anglia

Training year: 2

ICS: Dorset

Bio

I started my Pharmacy journey nearly 20 years ago in Community and honestly, that time has flown!

I started as a Healthcare Counter Assistant, then completed the NVQ2 Dispensing course before gradually working my way up over the years to Pharmacy Manager.

Recently I made the move over to Hospital Pharmacy with an opportunity to enrol onto the PTPT course at University Hospitals Dorset.

I have a lot of experience supporting team members from training Dispensers and guiding Trainee Technicians, to simply lending an ear to listen.

So please don't hesitate to reach out and I'll do what I can to help.

Although my time in Community Pharmacy has paved my career, I am thoroughly enjoying learning through the course within a hospital setting and look forward to a clinical future on the wards.

When I'm not preoccupied, you'll either find me with my nose in a book or on a long walk somewhere along the Jurassic Coast!

Stefanie Pendon

Employing organisation: Home Farm Pharmacy

Pharmacy sector: Community

Education provider: Skills4Pharmacy

Training year: 2

ICS: Bath, Swindon & Wiltshire (BSW)

Bio

I have done community pharmacy for around 6 years now. Previous to this I was doing care work with agencies without a driver's licence. It got me fascinating with how dosettes were prepared in pharmacies so that's why I joined and haven't looked back! I have since got my licence whilst I was studying on my dispensing course.

I wanted to be a trainee rep because of my care experience, I am always putting people first before myself. Even if I just help once that will give me satisfaction that I have done something right.

I don't have any hobbies because I work full time, study to be the best Technician possible and I also look after my dad. However, I have the interest of flags of the world and capital cities of the world. I love doing quizzes too!

My goals for my future is to be qualified and possibly maybe get more studying done so that I can become a senior Technician or manager at a pharmacy. I would love to see someone else progress like me from the start without the experience. I would support them during their Dispensing course and if they get enrolled on the Technician course.
